

Men's Community Practitioner (*Male)

1 x full-time 37 hours per week.

This post is until March 2025 could be extended pending funding.

Salary: £ 24,858

(rising by 5% to £26,101 after successful completion of probation period)

Behind Closed Doors works with Leeds Women's Aid and Women's Health Matters to deliver the Leeds Domestic Violence Service (LDVS). We are seeking to appoint a new male practitioner into our experienced and friendly team to provide community-based practical support to people who have experienced domestic abuse in Leeds.

Additional benefits: flexible working policy, hybrid office/home working, 2-hours well-being time each month, pension scheme, Employee Assistance Programme, external supervision, values-led organisation and continued professional development.

To apply for this role, you will be committed to reducing risk with vulnerable men and their children, able to work in a supportive yet demanding environment and able to manage a large diverse caseload.

Behind Closed Doors welcomes applications from men from all sections of the community.

Please download an application from Work for us - Behind Closed Doors and return it via email to info@behind-closed-doors.org.uk

For an informal discussion, please contact our Operations Manager, Debbie Cowling: Debbie.Idvs@behind-closed-doors.org.uk

Closing date: Monday 24th June 4pm

Applications after this time will not be considered.

Interviews: Tuesday 2nd July

*Given the nature and requirements of this post, this post is open to men only and the Equality Act 2010 Schedule 9 (Part 1) Occupational Requirement applies.
